Market Square Day draws high humidity and large crowd

The annual Market Square Day in Mound City, hosted by the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, was met with high humidity and temperatures in the mid 90's on Monday, September 3. The heat didn't appear to keep too many people away, as the streets were full of vendors and buyers.

The event boasted books, clothing, jewelry, makeup, food and beverage items, tools, purses, homemade cards, pillows, blankets, towels and home decor, just to name a few. The event was, as always, a time to visit with local residents and family members.

The shelter from the tent offered patrons a cooler place to sit and enjoy both the food and the company. The church also had a trio serenading passersby with song during the majority of the day's event.

They also had free Tootsie Rolls™, a TV raffle for the organization which will be drawn in about a month, and Coke and water bottles on ice. Britt Small and Festival inducted into the Missouri Music Hall of Fame - Part I Induction into the newly established Missouri Music Hall of Fame at the Joestock Music Festival in St. Joseph, MO, at the Phil Welch Stadium was a surprise to Britt Small of Skidmore, MO, and members of Festival, a musical group legacy from 1973 to 2001.

Britt Small and Festival were honored at an induction ceremony during Joestock on Saturday, September 1. Following the presentation, Britt Small and his son, Martin, entertained at the festival for nearly an hour, singing a variety of songs from digital Festival tracks. Other original members of Festival were on hand to enjoy the event. Other original members besides Britt Small included: Mark Reinig, Stan Funston and Dave Small. Those four members were the only four of approximately 14 band members that were part of the band from its inception in 1973 until it dissolved in 2001.

Britt Small and Festival were honored and recognized for their American Red, White and Blue patriotic ways. The band became resolved in its tribute to America's veterans after a cataclysmic event in Washington, DC, in 1982. The event occurred during a volatile time at the dedication of the Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Wall. The band's action, which gained national attention, changed the course of the band forever.

This event and others will be elaborated on in Britt Small and Festival: Part II, appearing in the September 13 edition of the Mound City News.

Also being inducted in the Missouri Music Hall of Fame were Charlie Parker, "The Lord of Be-Bop"; Scott Joplin, "The King of Ragtime"; and the Frog Hop Ballroom. The three-day free event featured 24 local acts and three induction ceremonies.

Two Tiffany Heights employees receive awards for contributions to long-term care

Tiffany Heights in Mound City, MO, selected a teen volunteer candidate on Wednesday, August 29, to submit to Missouri Health Care Association District II. The candidate chosen this year was Torri Carroll. Torri spent most of the school year as a volunteer and came after her classes were over. She helped with the activity department. Torri assisted the activity director and led the activity when needed. In her spare time, Torri often brought homemade treats or cookies she had made. Torri, at times, stayed when Tiffany Heights was one person short. She attended the Golden Age Games with the residents and was always eager to help.

Torri was also a nursing assistant and has recently become certified. She hopes to become a registered nurse and is now attending Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville, MO. Torri won at the district level and was invited to attend the state conference as the representative for Tiffany Heights and compete at state level. Torri attended the annual convention in St. Charles, MO, to be recognized for her contributions to the long-term care industry and a statewide winner was picked from the nominees. Torri was selected by Missouri Health Care Association as the State Teen Volunteer of the Year.

Tiffany Heights would also like to recognize Barbara Hanlon as the selected adult volunteer of the year nominee. Barbara has been a reliable volunteer since she came to live in Mound City. She has volunteered at many levels and has provided additional assistance when needed. Barbara has been instrumental in reestablishing the Bible study with Pastor Paul Grant. She also assists with the glamour nails and bingo. Barbara does not hesitate to assist with any activity when needed. Barbara was chosen by the Missouri Health Care Association District II as Adult Volunteer of the Year. Barbara represented the district at the state convention in St. Charles, MO, and was among those honored for their contributions to the long-term care industry. "I have volunteered my whole life, I was raised that way and it's my passion", stated Barbara.

Locals assisting with the harvest were Joe and Susan Laukemper, Scott, Lori, Cameron, and Elizabeth Laukemper, Mei Laukemper (and Logan accompanied Cameron and Elizabeth), Jim and Ruthie Steele, Melinda Graves, Corey Kudrna, John Metzgar, and Mason and Judy McIntire. At the end of harvest, Ruthie served everyone some amazing grape pie she had made.

A total of 5,540 pounds of grapes were picked (over 2 3/4 tons!). Three thousand, four hundred forty pounds were delivered to Riverwood Winery in Rushville, MO, and 2,100 pounds were delivered to Free State Winery in Tonganoxie, KS.

Mound City Kiwanis Club news

The Mound City Kiwanis Club met at the United Methodist Church in Mound City on Wednesday, August 29, 2012, with 13 members present. There was no program - a business meeting followed the meal.

A sign-up sheet was passed around for volunteers to staff a booth for the gun raffle at the Oregon, MO, Fall Festival and Market Square Day in Mound City. A request for funds to support the six after school programs was submitted and approved.

Flags need to be put up on Labor Day. Joe Laukemper and Mason McIntire are program chairmen for September.

Dave Frede gave a financial report. A letter was received from Ann Schlueter, Community Hospital-Fairfax, MO, recognizing the Kiwanis for the $50 donation to the 2012 Back-to-School Fair. There was discussion about potential fund raisers. The new officer installation will be either October 1 or 3.

CH-F Auxiliary to host fall brunch September 20

In 1971, sixty-five women met at the Masonic Hall in Fairfax, MO, in support of Community Hospital-Fairfax (CH-F). Today, those women would be happy to know they started a tradition that is still making a difference 40 years later.

Today, the Community Hospital-Fairfax Auxiliary continues to provide vital funds for equipment and scholarships. Did you know one could make a difference in their community by joining? Every year, the auxiliary makes an impact with its projects, from purchasing important surgical equipment or treadmills for therapy to making a patient's day brighter by crafting favors for the meal tray.

Auxiliary members would like the public to join in their efforts and invite anyone interested in hearing more about the auxiliary to the annual Fall Brunch. It will be held at the First Baptist Church in Tarkio, MO, on Thursday, September 20, 2012, at 9:30 a.m. President, Rose Munsey, will be giving a presentation on the auxiliary's history and projects. Brunch will be served and the first meeting of the 2012-2013 auxiliary year will be held. Members from all around are welcome.

The auxiliary currently has members from Holt and Atchison counties.

One may wonder what being part of the auxiliary would mean. The beauty of it is that anyone can be as involved as they want. They can make goods for the bake sales, volunteer to work in the gift shop, make crafts or donate food for events like the employee appreciation tea or the chili supper.

For more information, please call the auxiliary president, Rose Munsey, at 660-744-2715 or 660-253-2814.

News from Tiffany Heights

On Monday, August 27, the residents of Tiffany Heights in Mound City started out the week with a word game. Residents were in the mood for a float trip so they played a nautical guessing game. They were given a description of the word and were asked to guess the word. These were a little harder than they expected, but they got through them. Residents also discussed where they might find the happiest people. Well, the happiest people on Earth are found in Norway, according to a recent study by Forbes Magazine. If income, housing, education, the environment and life satisfaction is factored in, Denmark is the place to visit. Residents still think they have a pretty good place to live. They then took a second look at the same word game they had done at the beginning of the month. This time, residents were asked to make 100 different words using those letters (National Fair Month). They were able to make almost 120 different words, almost 40 more than last time.

On Tuesday, residents got "pickled" in the dining room. They discussed a variety of things that could be pickled and came up with quite a list, from fruit, vegetables and meat. Residents then stirred up a recipe for fried dill pickles. They were a different taste and were surprised to fry them. They also had pickled okra, pickled baby corn, Debi Clifton's pickled green beans, and for a surprise, some pickled kelp from Alaska. They tasted these vegetables and then fried the rest of the dill pickled vegetables, but the kelp was a sweet pickle which residents ate on a cracker. They were all amazingly good.

During the afternoon, the residents played a little game called, "The price was what?" Several items were bought downtown in Mound City that residents would use or like and the residents were asked to price them. The closest to the correct price without going over was the winner of the item. They also played a guessing game that compared prices in 1940 to the price today on many larger items such as a house or a car, many grocery items and wages and incomes. Some things surprised the residents and some did not.

Dorothy Gilland accomplished the four mile mark during the walk and roll program this week. Doris Taylor made eight miles. This week ends the six-month challenge and residents will begin again in September. Residents have walked a total of 193,440 feet this cycle. The top three on the north hall were Ruth Swymeler, Dorothy Gilland and Doris Taylor. The top three on the south hall were Inez VanOrman, Beverly Quimby and Eva Ruth Andes. Winners of a meal out were north hall, Dorothy Gilland; and south hall, Beverly Quimby.

Dee Ann Heck played piano before lunch on Thursday. Bingo volunteers during the afternoon were Shirley Jackson, Jean McCall, Barbara Hanlon, Denise Acklin, Gordon Robbins, Judi Scarbrough and Mary Lee Privett.

Barbara Hanlon provided glamour nails on Friday morning. Pastor Paul Grant and Barbara Hanlon conducted Bible study also during the morning on Friday.

The Saranades entertained on Saturday morning. This is always a treat and residents appreciate them remembering them. During the afternoon, the residents enjoyed homemade ice cream. Residents got a choice of vanilla or strawberry and most everyone had both. Games of choice were also encouraged during the afternoon.

Larry Brickey and the Baptist Church family provided Sunday morning worship. Afternoon services were conducted by the Community of Christ Church.

Youth invited to join Shiloh 4-H

Those interested in joining 4-H are invited to the Shiloh 4-H Club's first meeting of the 4-H year, this Sunday, September 9, at 3 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Mound City. 4-H is open to all youth ages 5 to 18. Regular membership is for youth ages 8 to 18. Clover Kids is for youth ages 5 to 7. The agenda for this first meeting will be electing officers and members will begin choosing projects and identifying club and project leaders. The club has met the second Sunday monthly at 3 p.m., however, the time and date will be a discussion item at the organizational meeting.

Some ask what happens at 4-H and is there a cost? At the September and October meetings, members will choose projects to learn by doing. At monthly meetings, members learn through demonstrations and Clover Kid activities. Throughout the year, community service projects also are conducted. This past year, the Shiloh 4-H Club adopted two miles of Highway 59 north of Mound City, mounted the new "welcome to Holt County/Mound City" sign at the entrance of Mound City from the interstate, and hosted a birthday party for the Mound City Nutrition Site. 4-H offers a variety of activities for members attending a majority of the meetings such as the summer camp, achievement day, state fair exhibiting and demonstrating, and leadership opportunities and trips for specific age groups. The membership dues are $15 annually, which covers the county and state dues. Parents or guardians are encouraged to participate with 4-H youth members at meetings.

If anyone has questions, contact the Holt County Extension Center at 660-446-3724, check out the state 4-H website at <http://mo4h.missouri.edu> or contact current club leaders, Karma Metzgar and Jennifer Heck.

For those interested in joining but unable to attend the September 9 meeting or wanting to know about the other 4-H clubs in Holt County, contact Teresa Kurtz, youth program associate, at the extension center.

USDA reminds producers of upcoming sales closing date for noninsurable crops

Holt County USDA Farm Service Agency (FSA) Executive Director, Eric Redden, reminds producers that they have until Monday, October 1, 2012, to purchase coverage through the Non-insurable Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP). The sales closing date is actually September 30, 2012, but producers have until Monday, October 1, 2012, to purchase coverage this year because September 30 falls on a weekend.

NAP provides financial assistance to producers of noninsurable crops when low yields, loss of inventory or prevented planting occur due to normal disasters.

"Purchasing a crop insurance policy is an easy way for producers to mitigate risk," said Redden. "The past few years have shown that natural disasters can severely impact an otherwise successful operation," he said.

The following crops have a NAP application closing date of Sept. 30, 2012: All fall-seeded forages and small grains (annual rye grass, barley, canola, rye, triticale and wheat) and strawberries.

In order to meet eligibility requirements for NAP, crops must be noninsurable, commercially-produced agricultural commodity crops for which the catastrophic risk protection level of crop insurance is not available. If the Risk Management Agency (RMA) offers coverage for a crop in the county, then NAP coverage is not available for that crop.

In the event of a natural disaster, NAP covers the amount of loss greater than 50 percent of the expected production based on the approved yield and reported acreage.

Eligible producers can apply for coverage using form CCC-471, Application for Coverage. Producers must file the application and service fee by the Oct. 1st deadline. The service fee is the lesser of $250 per crop or $750 per producer per administrative county, not to exceed a total of $1,875 for a producer with farming interests in multiple counties.

For more information on sales closing dates and NAP, contact the Holt County FSA office at (660) 442-3134.

Family sized sweet potato

Dave Jackson of Mound City- Brought this enormous sweet potato, which could likely feed a family of four, by the Mound City News office on Tuesday, September 4. He and his wife, Shirley, unearthed this and several other extremely large sweet potatoes from their garden on Saturday, September 1. The couple had kept the garden watered. Visiting with other gardeners in the area, large sweet potatoes seem to be a normal occurrence this year for no apparent reason.

Graham news

By Michelle Brown

The annual Mowry family reunion was held in the Graham, MO, city park on Saturday, August 25. Co-chairmen were Sherilyn Lance of Barnard, MO, and Jeff Jahne of St. Joseph, MO. Relatives attended from New York, Colorado, Arkansas, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri. They also enjoyed the Graham Street Fair activities.

A meeting of the Graham Community Betterment was held on Tuesday, August 28, in the building. Richard Vogel presided with seven others present. Work has been done on the ceiling of the building and other building issues were discussed. The Lions Club plans to have a fish fry on Saturday, November 3. A Community Betterment sponsored fall beef and noodle dinner is planned for Sunday, November 11. The next meeting of Graham Community Betterment is Tuesday, September 25, at 7 p.m.

The Graham Street Fair was recently held. Rain, which was much needed, dampened some of the activities. The car and tractor show were not held. Some of the winners will follow next week. Velinda Brown was home with sister, Michelle, over the weekend and helped with the pet show.

Black dust covers combines

A cloud of black dust follows combines as they move across the field harvesting corn. The dust is caused by spores from fungi that grow on corn when it matures in the field. The fungi starts growing on dying or dead plant tissue. The high temperatures and moisture allows for the fungi to grow rapidly.

Typically, the fungi are Alternaria, Cladosporium and Aureobasidium along with others. This group of fungi is known as sooty molds according to Dr. Laura Sweets, Commercial Ag Plant Pathologist with the University of Missouri Extension Service.

Livestock producers are concerned about black covered corn residues. These molds are not likely to cause any problems with livestock when baling corn residues. However, all livestock producers are cautioned that area corn fields contain high levels of nitrates in stalks.

For more information, contact Wayne Flanary at 660-446-3724 or Heather Benedict at 660-425-6434, Regional Agronomists, University of Missouri Extension.

Trojan Wade Saxton, left- Tried to elude the tackle by a Stanberry defender in Nodaway-Holt's game against the Bulldogs at home in Graham, MO, on Friday, August 31.

Nodaway-Holt's quarterback, Nick Patterson- Looked for his receivers during the Trojans' second game of the season against the Stanberry Bulldogs. The Trojans suffered a 47-0 loss to the Bulldogs.

Trojans shut out by Stanberry

The Nodaway-Holt Trojans hosted the Stanberry Bulldogs in 8-man football action on Friday, August 31, in Graham, MO. The Trojan team, coming off a win, suffered a disappointing 47-0 loss to the Bulldogs.

"Stanberry has an outstanding team and showed why it is one of the top 8-man teams this year," commented Nodaway-Holt Coach Josh Petersen on the game. "I was disappointed with our line play on both sides of the ball. We just weren't physical enough to do what we needed to be successful. Our intensity level wasn't where it has to be to compete against the upper level teams. Hopefully, we can get some things corrected and get back on track."

Stanberry tacked up three first quarter touchdowns from Jesse Oldham, Reid Osborn and Trevor Johnson. Shelby McMullen added two extra point kicks to give the Bulldogs a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

In the second frame, Osborn added two more touchdowns for Stanberry, with Nathan Luke adding conversion points on the second touchdown. Luke rushed 45 yards for the third Stanberry second quarter touchdown, before Oldham raced 52 yards for the final score. McMullen kicked the final points through the uprights to give Stanberry the 47-0 halftime win.

USDA announces new aid for livestock producers in drought areas

U.S. Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack made a series of announcements to help farmers, ranchers and businesses impacted by the most severe drought in 50 years. The secretary said the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) intends to file special provisions with the federal crop insurance program to allow haying or grazing of cover crops without impacting the insurability of planted 2013 spring crops, a move that can help provide much needed forage and feed this fall and winter for livestock producers.

In a separate step, Vilsack will modify emergency loans, allowing loans to be made earlier in the season helping livestock producers to offset increased feed costs and those who have liquidated herds.

"At the direction of the President, USDA continues to work as swiftly as possible to get help to America's farmers and ranchers by providing flexibility within existing programs, particularly those that assist livestock producers," said Vilsack. He also designated 33 additional counties in 8 states as natural disaster areas-23 counties due to drought. In the past six weeks, USDA has designated 1,821 counties in 35 states as disaster areas-1,692 due to drought-while USDA officials have fanned out to more than a dozen drought-affected states as part of a total U.S. government effort to offer support and assistance to those impacted by the drought.

The changes announced by Secretary Vilsack will benefit America's livestock and crop producers alike by improving procedures and lessening requirements during a time of disaster.

For the 2013 crop year, USDA's Risk Management Agency (RMA)-which manages and operates the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation-intends to file special provisions statements to allow haying or grazing of cover crops without impacting the insurability of planted 2013 spring crops. This flexibility will help farmers, if they choose, plant a cover crop without risking crop insurance coverage in 2013, providing much needed forage and feed this fall and winter.

In a separate announcement, USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) will make changes to the emergency loan program that will help producers obtain the loans earlier in the season. Previous to this change, emergency loan eligibility was based on crop losses that were determined after the production cycle; loan amounts were based on production during normal years.

With these changes, producers no longer are required to wait until the end of the production cycle to obtain a loan, benefiting livestock producers who need assistance today to help offset increased feed costs, as well as producers liquidating herds as a result of the drought.

Public Notices in this newspaper help me participate in my community.

State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.

I read legal notices to find out when those people will meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and when I can offer my two cents worth.

Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?

The answer to that is obvious. No, it would not.

New sign for Laukemper Motors

A new sign was hung at Laukemper Motors in Mound City- At its Highway 59 (State Street) location on Thursday, August 30. Roderick Sign Co. of St. Joseph, MO, installed the new placard that more accurately depicts the business's product offerings. The sign was part of an upgrade program that Chrysler had available and the business felt was necessary. Laukemper Motors has been in business since 1946, offering Chrysler, Dodge, Jeep and Ram vehicles. The old sign showed the business as a Plymouth dealer, which has not been the case since 2000. "The sign doesn't change the quality service and vehicles provided here at Laukemper Motors, but as the Chrysler Group continues to grow, this is one thing we can do to help the badging of the group," stated Scott Laukemper, sales manager.

Mound City Golf Course sign dedicated

The Mound City Golf Club- Dedicated the new sign in memory of Doctor James Humphrey on Wednesday, August 29. The sign has graced the entrance of the course all summer. As golf patrons enter the course, the front of the sign reads, 'Mound City Golf Course', while the back reads 'In memory of Doc Humphrey'. Memorial funds established in memory of Doc were given to the course and Doc's wife, June, along with their sons, Hans and James, were pleased to donate the funds to the course to assist in purchasing the sign in memory of a lifetime of dedicated 'play' that Doc and his various canine companions enjoyed at the course. Pictured above at the dedication were golf board president, Doug Kline, right, and June Humphrey, left.
